

Region 17 Tracy Gaffey Award

In the memory and spirit of Tracy Gaffey, former consultant for ACSA Region 17, the recipient of this award should be an individual who guides and mentors administrators in their personal and professional growth thereby contributing significantly to public education and educational leadership in Orange County. Tracy dedicated his life to the unwavering support of aspiring administrators as well as those already in leadership positions.

This form, or a copy, must be used to submit your nomination. In addition to this form, please provide a 2 page max supporting document explaining how your nominee meets or exceeds the award criteria given on Page 2. Up to two additional documents such as letters of recommendation should also be included.

Deadline to ACSA 17 is Friday, January 12th, 2018. See page 3 for email address.

Tracy Gaffey was a lifelong educator: a teacher, principal, superintendent, and professor who had the gift of seeing the potential within his students and those he mentored. He was a visionary who possessed insight into people and leadership positions in Orange County. He inspired trust among administrators, provided guidance and honest input with a caring and diplomatic manner. He was respectful and protective of administrators because he understood; he had lived their experience. His gentle, caring manner endeared him to all he mentored.
